

KALAMBAKA LIBRARY

Annual Report

2023

Our work continues..

The Library's objectives:

- Launch collaborative projects with cultural and educational institutions.
- Preserve the intangible cultural heritage.
- Create an attractive space for vulnerable groups.
- Participate in national and international conferences.

Services

- Loans
- Tours (On site–Online)
- New Technology Workshops
- Room, Equipment and Material Booking
- Ability to (3D) Scan and Print
- Access to Special Collections
- Educational and Museum Kit Loans to Schools
- Events
- Loan of material in remote villages
- Foreign languages (English – French), informatics, and robotics workshops

Collection

- 13,714 Book Titles
- 14 Electronic Games
- 160 Board Games
- 104 Educational Kits
- 83 Titles/1,062 Periodical Issues
- 39 Digital Manuscripts
- 11 PCs, 6 Laptops, 4 tablets, 2 Smart Boards, 2 HD Projectors, 3D Scanner and Printer

Statistics

37,814

Library
Visitors

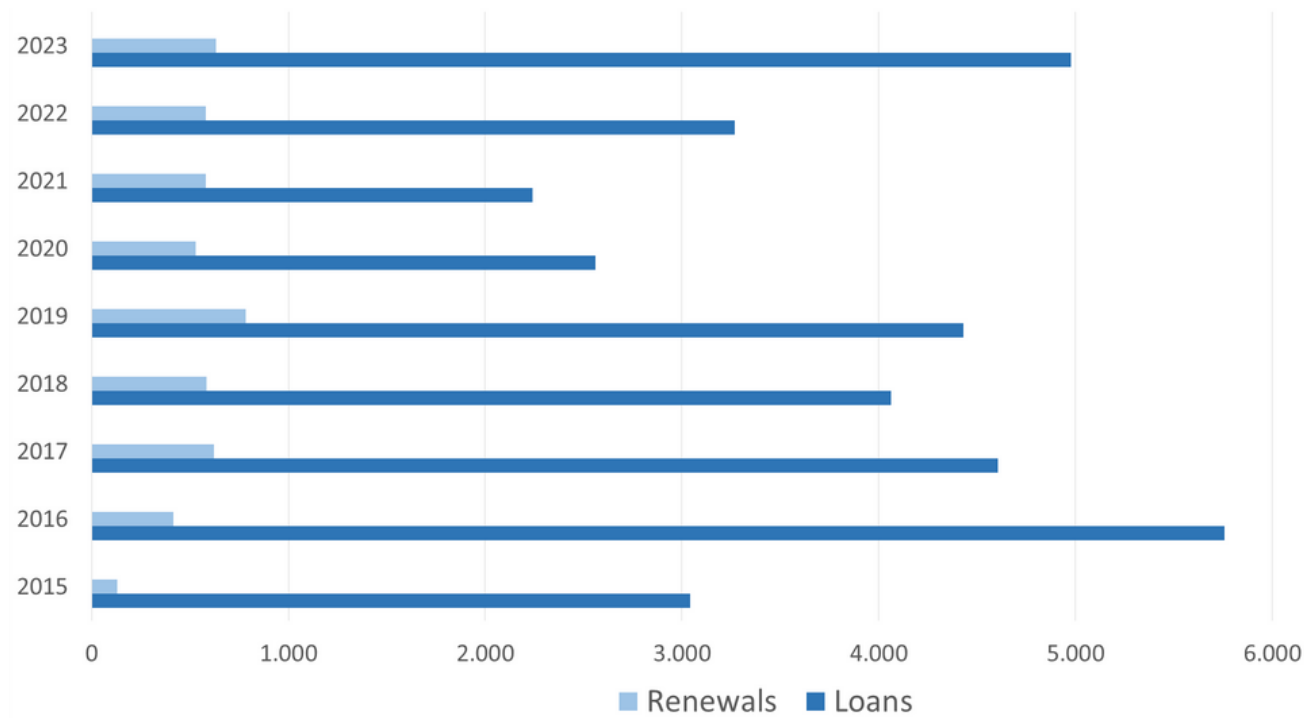

270

New Members

25,135

Website
Visitors

Renewals – Loans, 2015–2023

34,743

Website Views

1,964

Computer Sessions

51,032

YouTube
video views

3,131

Instagram followers

9,546

Facebook
followers

Statistics

Workshops Analysis

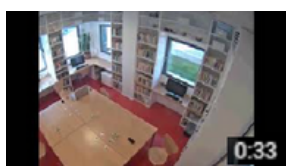

Our top 5 Youtube Videos

Byzantine Iconography

20.081

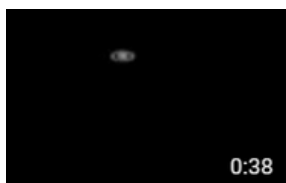

The moment of the earthquake
at the Library of Kalambaka,
12/3/21

3.923

Shadow theatre performance at the Library

2.431

SATURN - Kalambaka Library
Telescope

1.561

Woodcarving in the
Neighborhoods of the World

1.428

Events & Activities

84 Events

2016
Participants

Remote Robotics in the USA and Germany

Lectures

Book Presentations

Robotics in the Meteora
Municipality remote villages

Educational programs

Art exhibitions

2024

- In-person "Educational robotics in Meteora Municipality remote villages" (Vasiliki, Ayiofilo, Diava, Oxinia, Panagia).
- Educational robotics in Greek schools abroad (Germany, USA).
- Lectures with emphasis on historical and social issues.
- AGLIS 2025 conference in Kalambaka planning.
- Oral history program implementation.
- Robotics Festival in collaboration with the Meteora Municipality.
- Infrastructure Renewal Planning 2025.

